I like it. I think this is the best that I've found. I'm going to share it with all my game friends. Every one is thinking that maybe someday ffmpeg can do this. I have got a similar problem but video size is about 1 gb. Here it seem video size is about 20mb? I have published a plug-in through the website about a month ago. I got about 900 downloads. I am sorry to tell you that I have tested this plugin since then and found a problem when I try to download a stream to the plugin. It seems the result always says 'Data error for (stream number)'. Does anybody have any
